When a team doesn't share an understanding of God's next big dream, leadership grows tired, overworked by an "all things to all people" ministry approach. Too often there's no unified picture of what success looks like. People can feel uninspired and your church's programming can seem more optional than ever.

Does your dream pass these six tests? (Pexels/Tookapic) I love dreams. I love the contours of God's voice, the creativity He puts into His relationship with each of us. I enjoy interpreting dreams because every dream from God is an expression of His heart to the dreamer, and I get to see one more facet of His love.

And today, God is dreaming of YOU. You are God's dream. God is your Father and you are His child. You're a chip off the ol' Block. Like any child, He loves to see you dream and grow and develop. As long as your dreams are holy, He says the "amen" to your dream too. But all the while, God Himself is just dreaming of you. He loves you so much. His heart beats for YOU. So dream on, precious friend.

With warmth and humor, Archbishop Tutu distills his philosophy of unity and forgiveness for the very young. Archbishop Desmond Tutu has a vision of God's dream, which he shares here with the youngest of listeners. It involves people who reach out and hold each other's hands, but sometimes get angry and hurt each other — and say they're sorry and forgive.
