Edward Albee's "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf" has become one of the major works in American dramatic history (Roundane 42)
and a huge career boost for Albee himself. This is not surprising as this masterpiece is considered to be revolutionary and

Not only wanting to entertain the audience
but also including social criticism, Albee makes use of essential themes which help to make people understand their situation and to make them realize the
