"Jason Gaboury has written a masterful book, Wait with Me, on the theme of loneliness. He takes us on a journey that is biographical, exegetical, and imaginative. From Genesis to the Gospels, Jason describes loneliness as a human condition God uses for our transformation and his transcendent purposes in us.

I don ' t think there is a book out there that was more anticipated than Wait With Me. Amy Daws did not disappoint. This book brings everything to the table.
Humor, sexy hotness, sweetness with a touch of angst.
Kate aka Mercedes is hilarious as our heroine romance writer that finds her muse at the local tire shop

;) The secondary characters in Wait With Me were just as fun too! I loved Kate's friendship with Lynsey and Dean and we would all be so lucky to have people like them in our lives. I really enjoyed the additions to the story of actual events that Amy Daws experienced as well, especially the pizza delivery and fake invoice.
